LIEBE FREUNDINNEN UND FREUNDE.

Die transnationale Aktionskette geht in ihre zweite Hälfte. Am 18. Oktober in Rom mit den Refugees in Libya. Am gleichen Wochenende in Wien gegen ICMPD. Am 21.10. in Ragusa in Solidarität mit den Angeklagten von Mediterranea. Und Ende Oktober in Albanien gegen ausgelagerte Abschiebeknäste. Genauere Informationen zu all diesen Mobilisierungen sowie erste Dokumentationen und Videos zu zehn Jahren Sommer der Migration weiterhin bei www.transborder.net.

Starke Stimmen und starke Bilder, aber geringe Teilnahmezahlen. Soweit das Kurz-Resumee zur ersten Hälfte, die jedenfalls für die Demo zum UNHCR sowie für die Parade von We`ll Come United gilt. In Genf keine 100 Leute, in Berlin gerade mal 1000. Während die selbstorganisierten Stimmen stärker und lauter werden und Massenmobilisierungen verdient hätten, können wir zur Zeit allenfalls einige Hundert mobilisieren, aber nicht die Tausenden, die in diesen schweren Zeiten nötig wären. Entsprechend bleibt auch die mainstream-mediale Aufmerksamkeit begrenzt.

Doch ob f.Lotta rund um Lampedusa, ob UNFAIR 2.0 in Genf oder die Karawane in Ostdeutschland: die internen Stimmungen sind kämpferisch und motivierend, die transnationalen Verbindungen lebendig und inspirierend. Entsprechend zwei Leseempfehlungen:

zum Ersten das Book of Shame, das am 12. September - gleichzeitig mit einer Live-Schalung zum Protest der Geflüchteten in Agadez - vor der Zentrale des UNHCR in Genf vorgestellt wurde, siehe <https://www.refugeesinlibya.org/book-of-shame>. Und zum Zweiten das Tagebuch einer jungen somalischen Aktivistin in der Tageszeitung (taz), die in neun Folgen ihre Erlebnisse während der Karawane vom 20. bis 27. September beschreibt, siehe <https://taz.de/Refugee-Karawane/!t6114589/>

Wir enden das Intro mit den einleitenden Sätzen zur vielstimmigen Auftaktveranstaltung für die transnationale Aktionskette, die am 4. September online stattfand: „The Summer of Migration taught us a simple lesson: what may seem impossible, even unimaginable, may very suddenly become a powerful, unstoppable – if temporary – reality. Today, as we face dark times, at Europe’s borders, but also of course with the ongoing genocide in Gaza, these memories may appear to us as something from another time and world. It is our imagination itself that seems bordered by the violence of our dystopian present. In this context, it seems all the more important to recall the events of 2015 so as to reopen our imaginations and political horizons.“

In diesem Sinne mit solidarischen Grüßen,

die Kompass-Crew

TERMINE UND INFORMATIONEN FÜR OKTOBER 2025

14. BIS 18. OKTOBER IN ROM: AKTIONSTAGE MIT „STAGE OF SURVIVORS“ GEGEN DEN DEAL ZWISCHEN ITALIEN UND LIBYEN

„No deal for crimes against humanity. Stop the Memorandum of Understanding between Italy and Libya.

Join the mobilization in Rome:

- action days from 14th to 17th of October;
- big manifestation with a stage of survivors on 18th of October

A new coalition calls for common protests in October in Rome. Led by the self-organisation Refugees in Libya, numerous human rights organizations, civil fleet actors, lawyers, researchers, and representatives from the Catholic Church invite to a series of public events culminating in a strong manifestation on Saturday, 18th of October at 14:00 CEST at Piazza Vidoni. Dozens of human rights defenders, who survived grave injustice in Libya and at sea, will denounce the complicity of Italian and European governments with the clear demand: Stop the bloody deal – Stop the violence – Stand for humanity.

In February 2017, this MoU was signed by the Italian and Libyan governments on “fighting illegal migration.” In reality, every handshake has meant more suffering, more deaths at sea, and more crimes against humanity. The MoU, with the support of European Union funding and coordination by Frontex, has trained, financed, and equipped Libyan forces who have systematically abducted, arbitrarily detained, tortured, enslaved, killed, and raped migrants and refugees. It legitimizes and facilitates grave abuse of people who are trying to reach Europe via Libya and the Mediterranean. At sea, instead of rescuing boats in distress, the so-called Libyan coast guard leaves people to drown or violently returns them to Libya’s detention industry. Militias at sea constantly attack and even shoot at civil rescue ships. These human rights violations are so severe, systematic, and structural that they amount to crimes against humanity.

The MoU is renewed every three years. If nothing is done by November 2nd, 2025, this criminal and bloody deal will automatically extend for another three years, and the abuses will continue. The externalization and brutalization of the EU border regime must be stopped. We therefore call for the common mobilization in October to Rome.

Refugees in Libya, with the support of allied organisations, demand justice and reparations. People on the move stuck in Libya need evacuation, protection, and dignity.

Spread the message!

Join the mobilization!

Mobilize your friends, communities, and organizations!”

17. BIS 21. OKTOBER IN WIEN: KONFERENZ UND DEMONSTRATION GEGEN ICMPD

„Congress against racist migration politics & Demonstration against the „Vienna Migration Conference“

The ICMPD stands for racist and inhumane asylum and migration policies. Let us come together and oppose this – for freedom of movement and equal rights for all! Ten years ago, in the summer and autumn of 2015, hundreds of thousands of people set out for Europe – in search of a life in dignity. They broke through the European border regime. Millions of people in Europe acted in solidarity, offered help and welcomed refugees.

Ten years later: while more and more people are being forced to leave their homes due to war and crises, the media and politicians are stirring up hatred against refugees and freedom of movement. The summer of solidarity has been reinterpreted as a ‘refugee crisis’ that must ‘not be repeated’.

The European border regime has massively upgraded its capabilities and created new forms of defence against people: Europe’s borders have been externalised and militarised for years, political parties are vying to see who can deport people to crisis areas more effectively and consistently, and are working to abolish the last remnants of the right to asylum. The Vienna-based International Centre for Migration Policy Development (ICMPD) is one of the institutions playing an increasingly important role in this architecture of the European border regime. On 21 and 22 October, it will host the 10th Vienna Migration Conference in Vienna. Every year, it invites representatives from politics, actors in the (European) migration and border regime, and ‘experts’ to exchange ideas, jointly plan Europe’s migration policy and formulate strategic recommendations for policymakers....“

21. OKTOBER: PROZESSBEGINN IN RAGUSA/SIZILIEN GEGEN SECHS MITGLIEDER VON MEDITERRANEA - STELLUNGNAHME VON MEDITERRANEA ZUR ANKLAGE IM MAERSK ETIENNE VERFAHREN.

Der Prozess wird am 21. Oktober in Ragusa/Sizilien beginnen. „Maersk Etienne case indictment: we respond with a new ship ... They will not stop us with defamation, espionage, lawsuits. They have called us a “threat to national security”, they try to slander us, to isolate us, to intimidate us. But they will not succeed. The power of those who save lives is greater than the power of those who let them die.

Today Mediterranea doubles. The ship Sea-Eye 4 becomes MEDITERRANEAN and continues its mission as a ship of care, solidarity and dignity. They find us silent and afraid. They find us more determined, happier, more alive than ever.“

31.10.-02.11.2025 IN ALBANIEN: PROTESTE GEGEN ABSCHIEBEKNAST

2ND ANNIVERSARY OF THE ILLEGAL RAMA-MELONI AGREEMENT

OUR RESISTANCE IS GLOBAL – LET'S MAKE OUR VOICES HEARD!

The mobilisation against the Rama- Meloni agreement is going on. Join us in Albania on the 1-2 November 2025.

Friday, October 31 – Arrival in Tirana

Saturday, November 1 (Morning) – Press conference in Shëngjin

Saturday, November 1 (Afternoon) – Demonstration at the CPR of Gjadër

Sunday, November 2 – Transnational Assembly in Tirana

We fight against the fascist politics of re-migration: against deportations, CPRs, and Return Hubs for migrants. The prison for migrants built by Italy in Albania is a violent and dangerous model, legitimized by the Rama–Meloni agreement and the new European Pact on Migration and Asylum. Let's mobilize for its complete dismantling!

VIDEOS ZU 10 JAHREN SOMMER DER MIGRATION

„As part of the transnational chain of action a series of videos is in production. From middle of September on every week one or more new clips will be published, each including two voices: on one hand a still active supporter from the aegean or along the Balkan, on the other hand a person, who made it by him- or herself through the route and is living now since 10 years in a destination city. Reflections from the various experiences are combined and connected to recall and to reflect the summer of migration in 2015, but also to think about future perspectives.

The videos are produced by Rui Díaz from the Fish in Water Film project in Berlin. He visited in July 2025 again several contested spaces from 2015 for new interviews, while he also met and talked to various protagonists from this historical breakthrough against the EU border regime.,,“

REPORT MIGRATION-CONTROL: FROM HELL TO HELL - SUDANESE YOUTH CRIMINALIZED IN GREEK PRISONS

„In Greek prisons from Crete to Volos, more than 200 Sudanese teenagers and young men sit behind bars. Their alleged crime is not violence, theft, or exploitation. It is survival. Fleeing one of the world’s deadliest wars, they crossed the Mediterranean seeking safety—only to be prosecuted as “smugglers” under Greece’s sweeping anti-smuggling laws. Most are between 17 and 26 years old, boys on the threshold of adulthood. Instead of schools and apprenticeships, their youth is being spent in prison cells thousands of kilometers from home...“

RÜCKBLICKE AUF TRANSNATIONALE AKTIONSKETTE

ONLINE KICK-OFF EVENT ON 4TH OF SEPTEMBER 2025 TOWARDS THE TRANSNATIONAL CHAIN OF ACTIONS

About 50 people listened to the exchange with an introductory input from a protagonist of 2015, a friend from Zurich, who was part of the march of hope in Budapest 10 years ago, which eventually led to the historical breakthrough against the EU border regime. With brief interventions from Zagreb, Berlin and Geneva, from the Aegean and Lampedusa, from Madrid, Rabat and Rome, from Ljubljana, Vienna, Ragusa and Tirana the many-voiced session continued with reflections on 2015 and with presentations of the coming mobilizations.

S&R-CAMP

The first station was a camp in Biesenthal near Berlin, which was mainly organized by SAR-activists. „The camp brought together people from international organizations engaged in search and rescue, migration and displacement, “No Borders” movements, and anti-colonial struggles—alongside activists who live these battles every day. It was a powerful space to meet, to share knowledge, and to dive into workshops and discussions that carried real depth and urgency...”

F.LOTTA

The protest regatta started on 10th of September with a press conference in Mazara (Sicily) and the day after about 10 sailingboats started together in direction of Lampedusa. Find a logbook with pictures here:

<https://flotta.noblogs.org/logbook/>. A first evaluation in short by the organizers: „f.Lotta and F.lottine events took place in Lampedusa, Elba, Rome, Marseille, Brest,

Calais, Rosenheim, Berlin, and other places. 13 campaigns were launched, 20+ organisations joined the movement, 30+ boats were involved in the actions, more than 1,000 activists took part, and 1.1 million people were reached on social media so far.“

UNFAIR 2.0 IN GENEVA

Simultaneously to the f.Lotta-protests around Lampedusa two days of action took place in Geneva. It started on 12th of September in front of the headquarter of UNHCR with a press conference, in which a brand-new publication was presented: the Book of Shame (see <https://www.refugeesinlibya.org/book-of-shame>). Based on hundreds of personal testimonies its an impressive document to accuse the practices of this agency in Libya, Tunisia and Niger. A life-connection was organized in the same time to Agadez, where several hundred refugees protested against the treatment by UNHCR and to amplify their voices. Next day a demonstration started in front of IOM, the even worse and nasty agency of migration control, and it ended again in front of UNHCR for another protest.

WCU-KARAWANE

On 20th of September the German-wide network We`ll Come United started a one-week caravan through several cities in eastern Germany and concluding in a parade in Berlin. Isolated Camps and detentions were visited to empower the inhabitants, mainly voices of self-organised refugees spoke in the series of manifestations and demonstrations. In the German newspaper Tageszeitung (Taz) a diary with nine texts could be published by a Somali woman from the media team of the caravan, see here (in German)

AUSBLICK

18.11.25 IN FRANKFURT: TAGESKONFERENZ - KOMMUNEN ALS SICHERE HÄFEN, ERFAHRUNGEN UND PERSPEKTIVEN

Von 11:00 bis 17:00 Uhr im StadtRaum, Mainzer Landstraße 293

Angesichts eines anhaltenden Rechtsrucks in Politik und Gesellschaft stehen die Rechte von Geflüchteten zunehmend unter Druck. Zehn Jahre nach dem Sommer der Migration dominieren Ausgrenzung und Abschiebung die meisten medialen Debatten. Vor diesem Hintergrund wollen wir mit der Tageskonferenz einen Raum des Austauschs schaffen, in dem zivilgesellschaftliche und kommunale Akteur:innen gemeinsam ihre Handlungsmöglichkeiten reflektieren. Der Titel „Sichere Häfen“ ist insofern als übergreifende Chiffre für eine offene und solidarische Gesellschaft gemeint.

11:00 bis 11:15 Begrüßung durch Bürgermeisterin Nargess Eskandari-Grünberg und kurze Einführung zur Konferenz

11:15 bis 12:30: Drei Impulse und jeweils kurze Diskussionen

-1- Zusammenarbeit/Patenschaften zwischen Kommunen und zivilen Seenotrettungsschiffen - Gordon Isler, Sea Eye

-2- Aufnahme statt Abschottung - Marta Castro, Moving Cities

-3- Bleibe-Perspektiven statt Abschiebung - Milena Löbcke, Stadträtin Wiesbaden
13:30 bis 15:30: Drei parallele Arbeitsgruppen zu den drei obengenannten Themen/ Impulsen

16.00 bis 17:00 Zusammentragen der Ergebnisse, Vorstellung einer kommunalpolitischen Erklärung Ein Kooperationsprojekt von Seebrücke Frankfurt, Hessischer Flüchtlingsrat, Allianz für Refugees in Libya Offenbach, kein mensch ist illegal Hanau. Mit Unterstützung des Dezernat II (Diversität, Antidiskriminierung und gesellschaftlicher Zusammenhalt) der Stadt Frankfurt

3.12.25 IN BERLIN: TAGESKONFERENZ - FROM PALERMO TO BERLIN: SOLIDARITY AND RESISTANCE AGAINST CAMPS, DETENTION AND THE EU MIGRATION PACT

„Together with guest speakers from Palermo and Rome we will evaluate the current situation of refugees and migrants after their arrival in southern Italy. We will provide an overview of the conditions in camps and detention centers in Lampedusa and Sicily, what is going on in the Italian camps in Albania, and how these are linked with the implementation of the Common European Asylum System (CEAS).

In the afternoon we want to focus on resistance and solidarity: from inside the camps and detention centers, and outside with e.g. legal and other support by local groups in the area. This is also linked to trainings and prevention-efforts by the civil fleet already at sea. On this basis we want to discuss best practices and further campaigns and strategies against the EU driven aggravations and how to strengthen the transnational networks for the rights of the people on the move.

The conference will be held in English language...“
